To find parking, drive in through the security access entrance, take your first possible turn right and park in the visitor's parking bay area on the right.

The main entrance to the RCWMCH is to the right of the building that stands directly opposite the visitor's parking bay area. Keep right of this building and walk towards the large traffic circle in front of the main entrance (see Figure 1). The ICH Building is the tall building directly behind the front righthand section of the hospital (See Figure 1, top right structure). Keep right of the traffic circle, walking towards the ICH Building and along the service delivery road that ends at the entrance to the Oncology Building (see Figure 2). Turn left into the passageway that connects the oncology unit to the rest of the building. Take your first right at the entrance to the ICH Building.

Either take the stairs or the lift to the second floor. Press the intercom buzzer to be let in or phone 021 658 5492 to notify staff of your arrival.
